

Kim Chung-il

Current positions:

Chief, Office of Secretaries and Deputy Director, Kim Jong-il's Personal Secretariat
Member, KWP Central Committee

Born: 12 June 1938, Changjin, South Hamgyong

Education: Pyongyang University of Foreign Studies

1977: (November) 1st Secretary, Observer Representative in UN

1978: (September) Deputy Minister, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

1982: (February) Delegate (deputy), 7th Supreme People's Assembly

1984: Chairman, UNESCO National Committee in DPRK

1986: (February) Elected, Candidate Member, KWP Central Committee
(November) Delegate (deputy), 8th Supreme People's Assembly
(December) Elected, Member, KWP Central Committee

1987: (April) Awarded, Order of Kim Il-sung
(October) Senior Deputy Director, KWP Propaganda and Agitation Department

1990: (April) Delegate (deputy), 9th Supreme People's Assembly

1992: (April) Awarded, Order of Kim Il-sung
Deputy Director, Kim Jong-il Personal Secretariat

Kim Chung-il manages the Office of Secretaries which is responsible for channeling MOFA and diplomereporting and communications to Kim Jong-il. He also is responsible for coordinating KJI's overseas correspondents, a network of DPRK diplomatic personnel who channel intelligence, revenue and goods to the Central Party.